

SANDERSON
LONDON

Escape tradition and immerse yourself in the heart of London's West End to a retreat in a world of fantasy and well-being. The landmarked 1950s building has been transformed by Philippe Starck into a surreal dream world, epitomising a new luxury that is smart, pared-down and tempered with a healthy dose of wit and irony

Here at Sanderson we offer a variety of options, from the light-filled Gallery to the dramatic stained glass windows of the Billiard Room, our luxurious spaces offer chic and classy venues for every event. With stand-out service and bespoke menus to accompany, these luxe spaces are highly sought after, with each space tailored to suit your every need.

BILLIARD ROOM

AREA

75 square metres

807 square feet

The Billiard Room at Sanderson London has a low-key clubby vibe and features an antique silver-leafed billiard table, whimsical, lodge-like antler furniture and original 1950s stained glass design by John Piper, one of the most noted British artists of the 20th Century. Perfect for meetings, private events, dinners and wedding receptions.
